AN INITIATED PROPOSAL to repeal Section 5 of Article III of the South Dakota Constitution and adopt a new Section 5, Article III, relating to apportionment and the establishment of single member senate districts.

This proposed Constitutional Amendment would:

(1) repeal existing § 5 of Article III of the Constitution which requires the Legislature to apportion its membership every ten years according to the federal census, and at no other time, commencing in 1951, and in the event the Legislature fails to so apportion, mandates the Governor, superintendent of public instruction, presiding judge of the Supreme Court, attorney general and secretary of state to apportion within thirty days after the Legislature adjourns and requires the Governor to proclaim such apportionment; and

(2) place in the Constitution a new section requiring the Legislature to apportion its membership by dividing the state into single member senate districts and by establishing either single member or dual member house districts each wholly within a senate district. Each district shall consist of compact, contiguous territory containing, as nearly as practicable, equal population. Apportionment would be required in 1983, 1991, and each ten years thereafter. Upon failure of the Legislature to so apportion, the Supreme Court would do so within ninety days.
